To Extend the Usefulness of a Useful Life

Nothing has ever been devised to equal life insurance. It is the easiest, fairest, safest way for the man who is of use to others to extend that usefulness beyond his lifetime with them. This does not appeal to the gay and giddy, but there have been enough who felt the need of furnishing such protection to make and keep

LOST FINAL GAME

White Sox Could Do Nothing With Fleharty.

Halla Weakened Toward End of the Game.

HAD FEW FEATURES.

Contest Slow One From Start to Finish.

Went to Leavenworth This Morning.

In a featureless game yesterday after-noon Jay Andrews' Hutchinson Salt Packers by bunching their hits off Hai-Packers by bunching their hits off Hal-la succeeded in winning the third and only game of the series from Topeka by a score of 4 to 2. The game was a slow one and there was nothing bril-liant to detract from the listlessness of the occasion. Hutchinson had no trou-ble in winning as they connected with Pitcher Halls at opportune times and Pitcher Halla at opportune times and when a hit was necessary to win the game some of the Salt Packers were always able to connect. It is a note worthy fact that of the nine hits received by Hutchinson, three of them were good for transportation three quarters of the way around the circuit while two of them carried the batter to second.

A young gentleman by the name of Fleharty from the Emerald Isle worked on the Hutchinson slab and it was his effectiveness which won the game for his team. With men on bases the locals were unable to connect when it might have done some good and the game was lost as a result. In addition to being effective Fleharty hai splendid control and did not walk a man until the ninth inning. he ninth inning.

control and did not wark a man untithe ninth inning.

The locals were the first to score and this was done in the first inning. Abbott, the first man up laced out a pretty two base hit. Huriburt fanned and Davis flew out to Croughn. This made it pretty dark for Topeka and it looked as though a two-bagger had been wasted. But William Lange Landreth sent a hot one to Johnson and the latter in his eagerness to complete the play made a low throw, the ball going into the bleachers and Abbott crossed the rubber. Henry singled and Landreth went to third. It looked dark for Fleharry but Runkel in dodging an inshoot stuck his bat in the way of the ball and the ball rolled down to bewist for a geasy, out.
